Date of Event	27th October 2017
No. of participants	81

An Annual Lecture on “Relevance of October Revolution in Present Day” was organized by Dept of History on 27/10/2017 in Room No 5 to mark the 100 years of the October Revolution which altered the course of history and the way society was supposed to be. The session was inaugurated by Dr Sagar Baruah, Principal of the college who reflected on the great role that this revolution has played in shaping the world as we know it. After a short felicitation ceremony, the Resource Person of the session Sri Amarendra Sharma Retd Associate Professor, Dept of Chemistry, ADP College delivered the keynote address and addressed the gathering on the Bolshevik Revolution in which the Bolshevik Party managed to topple the interim government as the Soviets seized power. He led the audience through a journey to the past as he narrated the entire revolution and the way events unfolded to lead to the victory. Furthermore, he addressed the concept of Communism that grew roots from this event; that holds true even in the present-day world. Social Activist Dr Debendra Nath Muktiar delivered a talk on communism and the 21st century, focusing on the impact of the revolution that still resounds in the present-day society as an alternative to fascism and also to democracy and liberal market economy. The lecture session was followed by an avid discussion which was concluded with a Vote of Thanks by Mr Rayhanul Ahmed, HoD, Dept of History.

Seminar on Demonetization

Date of Event	6/11/2017
No. of participants	78

A Departmental Seminar on Current Indian Economic Issues with special reference to Demonetization was organized by the Dept of Economics on 6th November, 2017 in Room No 5. The seminar was inaugurated with a welcome lecture by Mrs. Selima Sultana Khandakar, HoD, Dept of Economics. The Resource Person for the session was Mr. Biswajeet Bhuyan, Associate Professor, Dept of Economics, Nowgong College. He vividly described the pros and cons of Demonetization in Indian Economy as a whole, explaining how Demonetization is a situation where the RBI withdraws old currency notes of certain denominations as an official mode of payment. This was recently done in the case of India when on 8th Nov, 2016, in a surprise announcement, PM of India declared that specific denominations of Rs 500 and Rs 1000 notes will cease to be considered to be legal tenders.

The resource person further emphasized on the history of demonetization in India when such steps had been undertaken for various reasons.

Furthermore, the resource person stated that RBI on August 30th, 2017 released its report on the entire process and situation analysis.

An interaction session followed the keynote lecture where students posed various queries on the mechanism, goal and ethical side of the situation. The session was concluded with a Vote of Thanks delivered by Mrs Umme Salma, Assistant Professor, Dept of Economics, Khagarijan College, Nagaon, Assam.

Awareness Programme on Prevention of Child Marriage

Date of Event	8th October 2021
No. of participants	59

An awareness programme on ‘Prevention of Child Marriage’ was organized by Action for Rural Poor (NGO) in association with Women Forum on 8th October, 2021 to aware the students about the social evil of child marriage that still plagues the society and destroys the future of the youth of the country. The programme was inaugurated with a welcome address by Dr. Ramesh Nath, Principal of the College who focused on the scenario of child marriage that still plagues the society.

The Resource Person Mr. Saib Ali, from Action from Rural Poor (NGO) delivered the keynote address where he highlighted the bleak situation that young girls face as they are put into a perpetual state of torment by marrying them off to much older men. Young girls barely into puberty are expected to bear children which not only scars them psychologically but also affects the physical body.

A robust interaction session followed the address in which he highlighted various case studies where the NGO had managed to identify and rescue young girls who suffered in such scenario. This is not just a social evil but it is instead supported by suffocating traditions and misguided well-wishers which destroys the life of these young girls.

He further encouraged the students to spread awareness regarding this matter in their friend circle as well as family so that such a practice can be eradicated as soon as possible.

The session ended with a Vote of Thanks delivered by Mrs. Umme Salma, Convenor of the Women Forum.
