Digital Library Portal

The Khagarijan College has introduced Digital Library Portal as part of the Integrated Library Management System (ILMS) in the year 2021. The main objective of introduction of the Digital Library is to provide facilities and services of convenient access to course as well as learning materials available in college digital repository. It also helps to access information at own pace and time.

Digital Library has no physical restrictions and limitations of space in conservation and preservation of learning resources in virtual mode. The materials available in the digital library can easily be access and use for teaching, learning and research. As a part of virtual repository, digital library has no time bound and language bar in access digital materials.

Digital library makes a wide variety content access to students with latest and updated. It allows the students to access course materials on demand and help them to find resources instantly without any difficulty. Digital library portal allows the students in real time interactions.

The college Digital Library portal contains with Class Notes, Questions Papers, Syllabus, College Publication, E-Books, E-Resources and College Magazines. The Digital Library portal has student log in panel where they can access available materials in the repository. In addition, faulty log in panel is also available for uploading course materials in the repository aiming to provide academic support for students.
